LINCOLNWOOD LEGEND

LINCOLNWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

RAYMOND, ILLINOIS

F O R E W O R D

Knowledge and experience are necessities of life in today's moving world. Both have wandered through the halls of Lincolnwood for several years. The staff pays a final tribute to the old Lincolnwood as we knew it and wish to remember it. In this annual, we attempt to record for your future the past happenings of the 1970-71 school year, the final year of a building retiring from secondary education.

Dedication

It has been a tradition of the graduating class of Lincolnwood High School to dedicate their yearbook to an outstanding member of the staff of this educational institution. The class of 1971 is no exception.

There is one man who has spent numerous years contributing to the educational development of the students. In previous years, he has taught many students in different languages. He has also developed one of the finest high school libraries possible. Therefore, we, the senior class of 1971, in deepest honor and respect, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Veryl A. Chause.

*Best wishes always, Barb
